

Q. No. 2 (i) Title:- Youth of Rasool (S.A.W) and duties of Youth nowadays.

1) Importance of Youth in Islam

Summary:-

Islam gives extraordinary importance to youth. The Rasool (S.A.W) also respected the passions and emotions of youth and imposed a great confidence in them. The Rasool (S.A.W) spent his youth in a very sublime way. His nobility of soul and purity of heart and honesty gave him title of Al-Amin. He (S.A.W) was an embodiment of modesty and chastity and he even did not let it go in his personal life. It has been binding upon us all to follow the instructions and teachings of our prophet (S.A.W) and to have a thorough knowledge of Sectat-e-Tayyaba. The youth should follow his (S.A.W) teachings in their letter and spirit.

Q. No. 2 (ii)

SELF ESTEEM To Youth

The Rasool (S.A.W) had a high esteem for youths. He (S.A.W) valued them and reposed a great confidence in them. In the preparation of Battle of Uhud, for instance, The Rasool (S.A.W) went against his own opinion and decided to face the enemy in an open field outside the city.

Conflict:-

Conflicts are most part of a story of novels when problems starts to arise and conflicts finally lead to Climax. Conflicts are an essential part of a play or a story and are are responsible for grabbing the attention of readers. Without Conflicts no story, play or novel can be written. Conflicts are a backbone of a story. The conflicts may be between Man vs Man, Man vs nature, Man vs self. In the novel; the "Lord of Flies", conflicts of Man vs Nature is seen. The boys find it difficult to adapt themselves to the deserted island. They have to face problems like shortage of food, water, danger of wild animals. but later on this conflict is resolved.
Another conflict is between Man vs Man between Ralph and Jack. Ralph wants to protect the

OUR Examination

System

Examinations play a very important role in one's life. They help a person to know about his pros and cons. It enables a person to face difficult situations in life. It also helps a person to know how much knowledge he or she had. Exams play a very vital role in one's life. They told him how much he/she has learned the entire year. However, examinations are quite fearing too. The students get quite afraid about what is going to come in the exams. "Exams are like

Q. No. 4 (Page 2/3)

"The Examination are inner fear of a student" Our examination system is not homogeneous rather it is heterogeneous in nature. There are number of boards like federal board, pindi board, Cambridge etc which conduct their own examination. As a result there is no uniformity of course being told to them. The major of our examination is set system the students can not write anything of their own but they follow only what is written in the book even in English and Urdu Subjects. As a result students don't have a creative mind.

The Examination system is getting worse day by day. In exam checking is not done in a good manner. There are a lot of ~~head~~ students who cheat in their exams and no one is there to stop them. The children write the notes on cheat sheets or on their hands and do cheating in exams. Similarly At the same time, some students who have get reference come to know about what is coming in the examination even before the exam. some bases

The examination system is based on old syllabus and curriculum. Old syllabus and curriculum is told taught to students. They read the same books that their parents have read and so they are not able to cope up with the recent trends. Some ^{also some parents are} unfair means are also used in order to get the paper before exam. Some people even bribe the guards etc and related people to show them / bring the question paper. It is the need of time that we all should work together to improve our examination system.

The purpose of education examination should be to make student creative not to make them dull minded. The government should work to improve the present condition of examination system. The students should not be bound only to their ~~books~~ they should be given opportunities to explore themselves and be creative. The students cheating in the exams should be strictly treated their paper should be cancelled and they should be charged. New curriculum and New syllabus should be introduced and no guess papers should be provided. In this way we can

Report Writing

Date: 21st June, 2022

To: The Chairman,
Parks and Horticulture authority
City ABC

From: The Manager
Parks and Horticulture Authority

Subject: The Condition of Parks in our area

Introduction:-

In compliance to ^{your} letter number 123 I have investigated the condition of parks in our area. My report covers the present condition of the parks and some pragmatic sudden suggestion for further improvement.

Parks are important to every country and source of entertainment and recreation. There are a number of parks in our locality. The condition of these park is over quite good. There are a large number of swings for children. There are jogging tracks and some exercise machines are also present. Some benches are also present. Even

Q. No. 6 (Page 2/3) is no proper security guards as a result of which crimes are increasing. Even some kidnapping cases were also recorded. The water from the fountain in the park stays in for a longer period and has become a hub of insects and diseases like malaria. No proper attention is paid to the planting of trees. The gardeners are quite ignorant and do not focus on the planting. Similary Children while playing destroy many of plants and pluck the flowers. There are a very few trees which are affecting the beauty of park. Due to scarcity of trees, it is quite hot in park and many children face sun burn.

Observation:-

I have ~~worked~~ worked as a manager ~~in~~ in city ABC and have gathered following data about present conditions of park and problems faced by the people.

Conclusion:-

I have gathered this information by taking the help of social media. I have also interviewed people (residence) of this place and victims as well. I hope my report will be beneficial in solving the problems.

Suggestion:-

In order to solve these problems some pragmatic suggestions are as follows.

- 1) There should be a strict security at the parks.
- 2) The gardener not performing their duty should be scolded or they should be replaced.
- 3) More efforts should be done for the plantation of trees.
- 4) Strict action should be taken against crimes.
